War and Semi-war Issues Do Not Indicate Belief That Peace Is Likely to Come at Early Date.

THY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASEN WIRE! New York, Jan, 29.—Stocks were in demand today, absence of untoward events over the holiday prompting further short covering. Trading was unusually broad but not especially

The strength of war and semi-war issues indicated that recent advices from abroad had given little impetus to peace possibilities.

Domestic developments were en couraging in affording further relie to transportation conditions and visible reduction of fuel shortage Proposed amendments to the impending railway bill received favorable

Rails were backward in the forenoon but later contributed in fair measure to the day's total at extreme gains of one to four points.

Steels were the dominant feature Bethlehem shares rising two to three points on declaration of regular dividends. Part of this was relinquished in the last hour.

United States Steel forfeited half its gain, closing at 92%. Announcement of maintenance of the regular dividends was not known until after the market closed. Sales amounted sharoz

Bonds were irregular, liberty 314's and first 4's making new minimums at $97.52 and $96.52 respectively second 4's selling at $36.30 to $96.14. Total sales, par value, aggregated $5,-% per cent on call.
